CES COLLEGE and Mediator Training Academy PAYMENTS, REFUNDS AND CONDITIONS

Payment schedule - An initial payment is required to confirm enrolment and the remaining course fees are payable by weekly direct debit installments commencing at the start of the course.

Qualification: CHC81115 Graduate Diploma of Family Dispute Resolution Completion Time: 12 months

Fee: Direct Debit Fee: $1500 upon enrollment plus 44x Weekly Payments of $280

Student requested refunds - After a deposit payment is made the refund arrangements are as follows:

- a) Refund requests must be in writing, signed and dated by the student. A scanned or faxed document is acceptable.
- b) 50% of a deposit paid is refundable if a written application is received by the College 28 days or more prior to the proposed course commencement date. The deposit is not refundable for refund applications received by the College less than 28 days prior to the proposed course commencement date.
- c) The monthly instalment payments are not refundable.

Delayed commencement or non-commencement - In the unlikely event that the College is unable to commence the course or deliver a course in full students will be offered a refund of any tuition fees paid in advance of course delivery. The refund amount will be:

- •The initial fee payment and any instalment payments received by the College if the course does not commence;
- •A pro rata amount based on the number of units completed by the student and assessed by the College at the time the course is cancelled. The pro rata amount is equal to the total fee paid up to the time the course is cancelled minus the number of units completed and assessed times the unit rate.

Refunds will be processed within 4 weeks of the date on which the course ceased being provided. As an alternative students may be offered enrolment in a different course by the College at no extra cost. Students have the right to choose whether they would prefer a refund of course fees or to accept a place in another course. If a student choses placement in another course, we will ask them to sign a document to indicate that they accept the placement in another course without payment of a refund.

Missed payments - Students who do not make instalment payments by the due date will be excluded from attendance and have their enrolment suspended for the lesser of one week or until the missed instalment payment is made. If the missed instalment payment has not been made at the end of the one week suspension the student will have their enrolment deferred or cancelled.

Fee changes - Prior to a student enrolling fees may be altered without notice. Once a student has completed enrolment, fees will not be subject to change for the normal duration of the course. If a course length is extended by the student then any fee increases will be required to be paid for the extended component of the course.

Other information & conditions - Students must notify the Institute of changes of address, telephone number, email address and fax number within 7 days of the change to ensure that students can be contacted and receive important information which may affect their course or their enrolment.

To achieve this qualification, the candidate must have completed 50 hours of work as detailed in the Assessment Requirements of units of competency. It is the Student's responsibility to organise this work experience on their own time and effort. It is NOT the College's responsibility to organise work experience for students.

Students Rights - This written agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.
